It is like this because of the staggering fact, as Wilber and many other “teachers” have made clear, that we are all already enlightened, but it is covered up by the layers of ‘ego’ that flows from our un-processed trauma and general un-consciousness. As with our psychology, our spirituality has three basic ‘flavours’.

Psycho-Spiritual Counselling takes the Soul, rather than the Mind, as its starting point of balance. It has an expanded view of life, recognising that the world is a complex mystery and it takes into account belief systems, universal & personal energy systems, intuitive psychic realities, karmic interplay, subconscious and supereconscious states of awareness, metaphysical experiences, spiritual theology, spiritual presence and higher-self cosmic connections.

A spiritual ego is no better than a regular ego but is a trap that we all fall into many times during our human development. It's not possible to overcome the ego by fighting it head on because whilst our monad is centred in the first triad we are the ego, so it would be like punching our self in the face.

Psycho-spiritual warfare is carried out when the original identity of a being is continually erased, the memories of spiritual purpose and access to the soul is disconnected, and fears of survival, terrorism, cataclysm and Armageddon are artificially implanted in the planetary brain via the N.A.A. Humanity is undergoing a severe personal trauma, based on the disconnection from the real self-identity as a spiritual-energetic consciousness.
